Title	Presenter(s)	Description	Room
A Can by Any Other Name Is Actually... Pringle People!	Nancy Cowart TC Instructor & Instructor Liaison Fox Creek High School	This is a discussion on using Pringle cans to make presents like Santa or gifts to give to teachers at Christmas, puppets to use for role-plays, or for creating the characters we see in stories or biographies in our language arts, literature, and reading classes or even in math, science, and social studies classes. These projects are a fun way to "test" reading comprehension and reading between the lines, to use math skills, and to put creative genius to work.	Expo B Offered: Session 1
All You Need Is a Pair of Scissors!	Rachel Turner TC Instructor & Instructor Liaison Mauldin High School	This Round Table session will show you how to make a durable paper book with no tape, no stapler, and no fasteners. These books can be used as graphic organizers, study guides, book reports/reviews, etc. See how easy and fun it is for you and your students at this 'make and take' table!	Expo A Offered: Session 3
CERRA Chat & Chew	Pre-Collegiate Staff CERRA	Are there burning questions you need answered? Need help with certain aspects of your pre-collegiate program? Have novel ideas that would improve our programs or suggestions you would like to share with CERRA's pre-collegiate staff? Come join us for a series of informal conversations as we chat, chew, learn, and collaborate!	GS 3 Offered: Session 3
Children's Lit Finds a Fit in Every Teacher's Classroom	Pam Flynn TC Instructor Broome High School	During this interactive and engaging session, teachers will hear how incorporating children's literature into the classroom has proven beneficial for students, receive suggestions on how to integrate children's literature into their classroom (no matter the content area), and take part in an interactive activity. Participants will also receive a list of suggested books along with a children's book to take back to their classrooms.	Expo A Offered: Session 1 Session 2
Pinterest Interest?	Jean Burden Program Facilitator Region 4 CERRA	Interested in Pinterest, Teacher Cadet instructors? You should be! Come check out all the new "pins" that are readily available to supplement the TC curriculum. Need ideas about building puppet theaters? Need ideas bulletin board ideas? This session is designed to highlight the pinned resources, categorized by themes and units, that are available on Pinterest to take your TC class to the next level! By the end of this session, you will walk away with ideas you can implement immediately upon your return to school.	Expo B Offered: Session 3
