

2016 Fall Renewal Conference
Pre-Collegiate All-Stars: One Team, One Dream
#oneteam

Concurrent Sessions Information
Thursday, November 3, 2016

Concurrent Session I: 9:00 AM – 9:45 AM

Title	Presenter(s)	Description	Room
Identifying Leadership and Problem Solving Skills Through a Murder Mystery Game	Polly Haselden Teacher Cadet College Partner Francis Marion University Karen Fries Assistant Professor of Education Francis Marion University Rachel Caulder Teacher Cadet Instructor Latta High School	In this session on murder, mystery, and mayhem, participants will be led through interactive experiences of identifying their own leadership and problem-solving skills via a Murder-Mystery game. Grouped together, participants will be tasked with figuring out the solution to a prepared murder-mystery scenario. Upon completing the scenarios and revealing the answers, participants will identify leadership and problem-solving strategies they used to come up with their answers and brainstorm ways to encourage those same skills in their Teacher Cadet classrooms. Participants will then share other activities that they currently use in their classroom that support problem-solving and leadership in the curriculum. Note: This session will be repeated during Concurrent Session II.	Expo A
BreakoutEDU	Jed Dearybury 2015 SC Honor Roll Teacher & Director of Professional Development and Communications Palmetto State Teachers Association (PSTA)	Are you looking for ways to bring the 5 Cs of 21st Century learning into your classroom? BreakoutEDU is exactly what you have been looking for! Breakout EDU creates ultra-engaging learning games for people of all ages while growing creativity, critical-thinking, collaboration, communication, and community building skills. Games (Breakouts) teach teamwork, problem solving, and troubleshooting by presenting participants with challenges that ignite their natural drive to problem-solve. Breakouts are perfect for classrooms, staff trainings, dinner parties, and at home with the family! At the end of a Breakout, your players will be eager for the next! Specialty K-12 Breakouts can be used to teach core academic subjects including math, science, history, and language arts and have embedded standards that apply problem solving strategies within a real world OR collaborative context. Want to know more? Join me for this high energy, hands-on learning session! Note: This session will be repeated during Concurrent Session II.	Expo B

Using the New Google Sites for Digital Portfolios and Other Collaborative Projects	Rachel Turner Teacher Cadet Instructor & Instructor Liaison Mauldin High School	Participants will learn how to create a simple website using the NEW Google sites. They will learn how to set up these sites to be collaborative for a class blog and/or digital portfolios. Participants should bring a laptop or other personal device with access to Google and Chrome.	Expo C
Advocating for Our Students	Kathy Maness Executive Director Palmetto State Teachers Association (PSTA)	From Praxis scores to retirement and everything in between, the General Assembly makes decisions that affect your students and your profession. This session will empower teachers to advocate for their profession. We will discover ways to find our teacher voices to stand up for our students and our profession!	GS Ballroom
Using ProTeam to Transform School Culture	Michell Batson-Curd ProTeam Instructor Hughes Academy Andrew Hooker ProTeam Instructor & Principal Hughes Academy Carrie McCain Guidance Counselor Hughes Academy	Interested in finding out how the ProTeam Program can be used to affect an ENTIRE school culture? Come to this session! Presenters will share how ProTeam can be used to promote a positive school culture—from aesthetics to leadership. Participants will leave with an example of an action plan to take back to their respective schools as well as a toolbox of strategies of ideas for students to emerge as leaders.	GS 3

Concurrent Session II: 10:00 AM – 10:45 AM

Title	Presenter(s)	Description	Room
Identifying Leadership and Problem Solving Skills Through a Murder Mystery Game	Polly Haselden Teacher Cadet College Partner Francis Marion University Karen Fries Assistant Professor of Education Francis Marion University Rachel Caulder Teacher Cadet Instructor Latta High School	In this session on murder, mystery, and mayhem, participants will be led through interactive experiences of identifying their own leadership and problem-solving skills via a Murder-Mystery game. Grouped together, participants will be tasked with figuring out the solution to a prepared murder-mystery scenario. Upon completing the scenarios and revealing the answers, participants will identify leadership and problem-solving strategies they used to come up with their answers and brainstorm ways to encourage those same skills in their Teacher Cadet classrooms. Participants will then share other activities that they currently use in their classroom that support problem-solving and leadership in the curriculum.	Expo A

BreakoutEDU	Jed Dearybury 2015 SC Honor Roll Teacher & Director of Professional Development and Communications Palmetto State Teachers Association (PSTA)	Are you looking for ways to bring the 5 Cs of 21st Century learning into your classroom? BreakoutEDU is exactly what you have been looking for! Breakout EDU creates ultra-engaging learning games for people of all ages while growing creativity, critical-thinking, collaboration, communication, and community building skills. Games (Breakouts) teach teamwork, problem solving, and troubleshooting by presenting participants with challenges that ignite their natural drive to problem-solve. Breakouts are perfect for classrooms, staff trainings, dinner parties, and at home with the family! At the end of a Breakout, your players will be eager for the next! Specialty K-12 Breakouts can be used to teach core academic subjects including math, science, history, and language arts and have embedded standards that apply problem solving strategies within a real world OR collaborative context. Want to know more? Join me for this high energy, hands-on learning session!	Expo B
Mindfulness 101	Todd Scholl Coordinator of Communications & Technology CERRA	Teaching is stressful. From the stresses of duty to the larger stresses of school violence, educators are under pressure. Many outstanding teachers leave the profession within their first five years. Those that remain in teaching can easily become burned out. Students are also under enormous stress and often do not have tools to manage academic and social pressures. Mindfulness is a free, easy, and secular approach to managing stress that is scientifically validated. In this session, Todd will explain the science behind the practice and explain its potential to transform our schools.	Expo C
Craft Corner!	Carol Jackson Teacher Cadet Instructor, Instructor Liaison, & Curriculum Trainer Dutch Fork High School Anne Ledford Teacher Cadet Instructor, Instructor Liaison, & Curriculum Trainer Fort Mill High School	Ever wondered how you will ever find the time to make all of those ancillary materials in the Teacher Cadet curriculum? I Have, Who Has cards? Fishbowl labels and head bands? Topic strips for ELL information? Parents of Troubled Teens packets? Oh, my! If so, this session is for you! Come to this "Make and Take" session and get a head start on creating these materials and learn some tips that are sure to save you some time!	GS Ballroom
The Looming Teacher Shortage in SC	Jane Turner Executive Director CERRA	There is a looming teacher shortage in SC that is hitting certain parts of the states now and is likely to affect all districts at some point in the future. Learn what steps are being taken to address this issue state-wide, particularly in the rural and high poverty areas of the state; also learn more about what educators and community members alike can do to recruit and retain high quality teachers for our state.	GS 3

Concurrent Session III: 1:45 PM – 2:30 PM

Title	Presenter(s)	Description	Room
Using Google Slides for Collaborative Projects	Rachel Turner Teacher Cadet Instructor & Instructor Liaison Mauldin High School	In this session, participants will learn the basics of Google Slides (creating, sharing and collaborating on a project together). They will see how their Cadets can work together to create collaborative presentations for Barrier Articles, Development Articles, Special Education terms, and a host of other cooperative learning activities.	Expo A
Too Much Technology? Kinesthetic Learning is for Big Kids Too!	Elizabeth Martin Teacher Cadet Instructor Pinewood Preparatory School Dawn Althen Teacher Cadet Instructor & Instructor Liaison R.B. Stall High School	We all love technology, but students can be overloaded with it. Students love to use their hands and bodies, and not just in ProTeam or Teacher Cadet, but in ALL classes! In this session, learn and renew kinesthetic strategies for middle and high school students to use in any class, such as Monday energizers, foldables for older students, and using art and music in core classes. Participants will leave with handouts containing kinesthetic lesson strategies to adapt to a variety of subjects.	Expo B
Mindfulness 201-Practices	Todd Scholl Coordinator of Communications & Technology CERRA	This session is intended for those who are already familiar with mindfulness and want to learn more about mindfulness practices. Todd will lead you through practices that can be employed individually or with groups of students and teachers. He will also show you some relatively inexpensive equipment you can use to lead practices and introduce mindfulness concepts to others. Dress comfortably, and prepare to relax!	Expo C
Degrees Not Debt-Federal Student Loan Forgiveness	Bernadette Hampton President The South Carolina Education Association (The SCEA) Aaron Warner Affiliate Relations Specialist National Education Association (NEA)	The significance of the college debt crisis is at the forefront of current news today. Would you like to learn the ins and outs of avoiding student loan debt? If so, this session is for you! Attendees will learn about current federal programs that provide debt relief, cancellation, and forgiveness for public service employees. This informative overview will be most helpful for persons that are currently paying on, or about to pay on, federal student loans.	GS Ballroom
Pre“Collegiate” Connections: The Significance of the College Partnership	Marcella Wine-Snyder Director of Pre-Collegiate Programs CERRA	This session is for College Partners ONLY. Come participate in this engaging session to discuss issues pertinent to the college partnership, share novel experiences, and help new College Partners brainstorm ideas to support their partner TC sites.	GS 3

Concurrent Session IV: 2:45 PM – 3:30 PM

Title	Presenter(s)	Description	Room
Techno-Connections: Strengthening Teacher Cadet and Teaching Fellows Partnerships	Amy Ellisor TC College Partner & TF Campus Director Columbia College Grace McClain Teaching Fellow Columbia College Emily Moore Teaching Fellow Columbia College Caitlin O'Dell Teaching Fellow Columbia College Jayna Patidar Teaching Fellow Columbia College	This session will feature strategies to help Teacher Cadet Instructors, College Partners, and Teaching Fellows Campus Directors strengthen collaboration and recruiting efforts. Ideas for sharing resources, developing effective college days, and integrating social media as a marketing tool will be presented. A panel of former Teacher Cadets/Teaching Fellows will facilitate a portion of this session. Participants will receive hands-on experience working with Instagram and other social media tools.	Expo A
Twitter for Educators	Jed Dearybury 2015 SC Honor Roll Teacher & Director of Professional Development and Communications Palmetto State Teachers Association	Twitter is the fastest growing social network of educators, yet many in the profession are still not tapping into this world-wide collaboration of teachers. Imagine planning, participating in, and leading your own professional development at your own pace and place. Every teacher knows their greatest professional need, and Twitter is the place to get exactly the learning you need. Whether you have had a Twitter account for years or if you still think “tweeting” is what a bird does, this session is for you. Learn how the power of being a globally connected educator can free your classroom from the boundaries of four walls and bring a world of learning to you and your students!	Expo B
Vision in a Box! The Twist on the "Scavenger Hunt"	Nikkina McKnight Teacher Cadet Instructor Andrew Jackson High School	Using the mandatory lesson, The Scavenger Hunt, TC instructors will learn how to incorporate the idea of the Vision in a Box. Learn how to use an ordinary shoe box (instead of a brown paper bag) to complete the Scavenger Hunt and use the inside of the box to plan goals for a future in education or some other occupation. Learn how to use magazine clippings, pictures, words, and other craft objects to create a vision to help achieve educational/personal goals.	Expo C
Confessions of the Teacher Cadet Eduholics Facilitated by	Carol Jackson TC Instructor, Instructor Liaison, & Curriculum Trainer Dutch Fork High	This highly engaging “confessional” is designed for both novice and veteran Teacher Cadet instructors. Have “burning questions?” Need some ideas? Need specific or curriculum-related questions answered? Feeling OVERWHELMED with all there is to do? If “yes,” this session is for you! Instructors will have	GS Ballroom

Angi Brush TC Curriculum Trainer West Ashley High School	School Anne Ledford TC Instructor, Instructor Liaison, & Curriculum Trainer Fort Mill High School Rachel Turner TC Instructor & Instructor Liaison Mauldin High School Carol Weaver TC Instructor & Instructor Liaison Rock Hill High School	opportunities to discuss their experiences with the curriculum, ask burning questions, and swap ideas that have enhanced the Teacher Cadet Experience for their students. Come. Confess. Get the answers you seek.
Using Service Learning Projects to Create School Leaders	Gabrielle Carsey ProTeam Instructor H.E. McCracken Middle School	Looking for new ideas for service learning projects? Whether you teach ProTeam or Teacher Cadet, this session is for you! We will explore different service learning opportunities to take back to your school. Together we will create a cadre of homegrown school leaders!	GS 3