

Questions from Teacher Cadet Instructors for Columbia College Teaching Fellows and Suggestions from Teaching Fellows to TC Instructors

Have you noticed a gap in the content-knowledge necessary to be an effective Fellow (content that we could incorporate or emphasize more heavily in TC)?

Submitted by TC Instructor, Cindy Hingle, North Central High School, cynthia.hingle@kcsdschools.net

Acclimating to college and learning how to juggle the time demands of Fellows (courses, service hours, meetings, internships) can be a challenge. Perhaps Cadet Instructors could use Google Calendars or some other planning device to teach time management.

Submitted by Amber Chavis, CC Junior TF

How difficult is time management? Did you have trouble adjusting to being solely responsible for getting things prioritized?

Submitted by Jill Hnat, TC Instructor, White Knoll High, jhnat@lexington1.net

Cadets who plan to be Fellows would benefit from visiting TF Institutions while taking TC Course

Submitted by Vidamarie Nicholson, CC Senior TF